

Cerena Reid-Maynard, LICSW

cerenarm@gmail.com

EDUCATION:

Rhode Island College
Master of Social Work
Graduated May 2011

Rhode Island College
Bachelor of Social Work
Graduated May 2008

LICENSURE: Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker #: ISW02595

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Butler Hospital

Program Therapist (2021-current)

- Provide short-term individual and group treatment to adults with acute and chronic psychiatric issues
- Complete initial psychiatric, biopsychosocial, and behavioral evaluations
- Develop individualized treatment plans
- Conduct family consultation sessions
- Lead/co-lead aftercare groups
- Provides training and supervision in individual and group psychotherapy for BSW/MSW/MFT/MHC students

Lifespan Physicians Group

Licensed Clinical Therapist (2016-2020)

- Provide and integrated ACT, CBT, and DBT intensive, short-term treatment to adults with acute psychiatric issues and personality disorders
- Provide individual and group therapy in-person and telehealth
- Provide community resources, and serving as liaison to address such areas as poverty, housing, food, clothing, transportation, health insurance

Private Practice

Psychotherapist (2015-current)

- Provided adult in-person and telehealth individual, couples, and family therapy

- Worked with all insurance panels and EAP agencies

Rhode Island College, Providence, RI
Off-site BSW Field Supervisor (2016-2017)

Provided supervision to BSW students during field placement:

- Provided clinical support
- Assist with learning contracts
- Provided feedback regarding cases
- Collaboration with onsite supervisor

Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, RI
Clinical Social Worker (2013- 2016)

Provided clinical support to patients and their families in addressing areas (evaluation/assessment) of:

- Emotional and psychological distress
- Medical crisis and adjustment to illness
- Grief, loss and bereavement
- Difficult family or social situations
- End of life issues
- Complex psychosocial issues
- Abuse and domestic violence
- Patient Prescription Program
- Links to community resources

Family Service of Rhode Island, Providence, RI
Home-Based Clinician (2012-2013)

- Provide short-term therapy to children and families to assist with mental health and behavioral needs within the home and community.
- Conduct emergency assessments for EOS/CAITS and other FSRI programs.
- Assess psychosocial status of client and evaluate response to interventions.
- Working collaboratively with team members, schools, and other service providers to help sustain a positive and progressive home and learning environment for client.
- Assess community resource needs and ability to access services.

DEA Clinician (2012-2013)

- Responsible for providing phone consultation, assessment, disposition, on scene crisis intervention and stabilization to elders in the community.

- Assess and evaluate elder cases of self-neglect, abuse, and other within the state of Rhode Island.
- Working collaboratively with reporting service providers to aide in client's well-being.
- Report findings and recommendations (data entry into SAMS) to Department of Elderly Affairs.

Fee-for service Clinician (2013-2013)

- Conducted intake and need assessments
- Utilized various approaches in which (play therapy, CBT, DBT) to provide psychotherapy to at risk children, adolescents, and families.
- Provided DSM- IV diagnosis
- Linked to outside resources

Elmwood Community School, Providence, RI
School Social Worker (2011-2012)

- Ensured students had necessary mental/emotional support to succeed academically.
- Provided individual and group counseling for adolescents struggling with ADHD, ODD, Conduct d/o, RAD, and developmental delays.
- Assisted with developing and maintain a positive learning environment.
- Served as advocate and mentor
- Engaged families and provided community resources.
- Updated IEP's
- Facilitated positive culture development activities

Tri-Town Community Action Program, Johnston, RI
Eldercare Case Manager (2011-2012)

- Crisis intervention and stabilization of elders within community
- Performed in-home and inpatient assessments.
- Investigated, reported and documented findings of elder abuse and/or neglect to DEA
- Provided coordination for clinical assessments for hospitalization or residential placement.
- Provided counseling and education re: food stamps, meals on wheels, lifeline, Medicaid.

Riverwood Mental Health Services, Providence, RI (2008-2010)
Intake Coordinator (2009-2010)

- Provided intake and case management services via telephone screenings and in-person interviews.

- Conducted need assessments for re: housing, mental health, substance abuse
- Developed 30-day treatment plans.

Team Leader (2008-2009)

- Interviewed, trained, monitored, and evaluated staff performance.
- Facilitated day to day operations and monitored activities of a team of four or more case managers.
- Ensured necessary communication to all staff members through weekly staff meeting and monthly supervisions.
- Facilitated weekly support group for women.

Case Manager (2008-2008)

- Conducted needs assessment, assisted homeless individuals, especially those with dual diagnoses.
- Developed and carried out 30-day and quarterly treatment plans, bio-psychosocial assessments.
- Provided referral services to agency members requiring additional needs.

Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, RI
Certified Nursing Assistant (2005-2008)

- Assisted Registered Nurse w/patient care.
- Provided phlebotomy when necessary.
- Conducted EKG's when necessary.
- Engaged patient and families.

Summit Medical Center, Providence, RI
Social Worker (2000-2002)

- Provided admissions and discharge planning for rehab and LTC patients.
- Successfully retrieved third party information for documentation and billing.
- Provided short-term residents and their families with linked service upon discharge.

Summary of skills:

Professional, organized, excellent customer service, well developed interpersonal and communication skills, excellent time management, leadership skills, strict adherence to NASW/CSWA ethical guidelines and HIPPA laws of confidentiality. Proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel, Powerpoint.